Annual Meeting of Ratepayers.

Town's Financial Statement Shows Big Surplus.

It would have taken more than the proverbial tooth-comb to have discovered ratepayers at the annual meeting of the town held on Friday evening last. When the meeting was called to order by Mayor Chambers, he had the town secretary, W. A. Austin, supporting him. Later on in the evening, he received further support from Councillor Leisemer.

The school board was more largely represented, there being present from this organization Dr. Clarke, Dr. Evans, W. G. Leisemer and J. M. Reed.

The mechanical department was represented by J. Mjolsness, and the ratepayers present comprised M. Weber and A. G. May.

With these exceptions the hall was blank

As it was understood the financial statement will be published, the ratepayers will consequently be able to peruse and digest at their leisure the figures relating to the expenditure incurred by the town during the past twelve months, together with other matters connected with its financial condition.

Outside of the statement read by the secretary, there was no other report submitted.

The Mayor, in a few remarks, deplored the lack of interest displayed by the ratepayers, and stressed the necessity of the appointment to the Council of the best men obtainable. During the coming year, he said, there would be several important matters engaging their attention. Among them would possibly be a proposition submitted by a company to supply the town with electricity. There would also be the railway crossing coming up.

The financial statement, which showed a bank balance of $7341.83 was commented on very favorably by those present, and finally was adopted by motion of W. G. Leisemer and J. M. Reed.

The financial report of the school board was read by J. M. Reed, and was adopted on motion of M. Weber and W. A. Austin. This report probably will also be published later on, following the usual custom.

Municipal Elections

Nominations for the Town Council were made on Monday, and as the result of considerable persuasion H. M. Reiber, D. A. Edwards and Alex Guy finally allowed their names to be placed on the form prepared for that purpose. In all likelihood their election will be declared in due course.

The Westcott Musical and Literary Club held a very successful meeting in the Westcott school on January 22nd. The supporters of the negative won in the debate on "Vocational vs liberal education." The next meeting is to be held on February 5th, when the debate proposition will be "Free municipal hospitals vs general hospitals."

Burnside

Our new Burnside-Jutland Community hall is almost finished and the floors are being laid this week. This is one of the nicest halls to be seen in the province and has a full cement basement under it with cloak rooms, card and smoking rooms and kitchen.

When we consider that outside of the carpenters wages, all the work both cement and lumber has been donated and all the money for materials has been raised in the community, we have reason to be proud of the generosity and progressiveness of this district. The hall committee would like to see a good turnout at the annual meeting on Saturday February 13th. This will be the opening and dedication of the new hall, and there will be community singing, followed by

Professionalism Is Killing Sports

It has been realized for some time that professionalism is the enemy of sport, but there is now an awakening to the fact that it is likewise killing the sports themselves. Real sport is to be found in games participated in by the masses of the people for the downright fun of one thing and for the recreation thereby enjoyed. But in the modern mad race for money, even the pastimes of people have been commercialized, and today, instead of people engaging in games themselves, and deriving pleasure therefrom and gaining physical strength and better health, they pay fancy prices to sit in the grandstand and cheer themselves hoarse over the exploits of a few high salaried experts.

The old days when the corner lot ball teams vied with one another, and the town commons was the scene of a spirited game of lacrosse or football, have gone into the discard. The youth of the present do not appear to play games for the game's sake, and for their own recreation and betterment, but are content to watch from the sidelines and bleachers.

In sport the present generation has degenerated and harked back to the decadent days of Rome when the arenas were packed with a multitude watching the performance of a few gladiators. It was a sign of the beginning of the end for Rome of old. The Duke of Wellington has been credited with the statement that the Battle of Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton. Today, however, the newspapers tell of the fifty or one hundred thousand spectators watching two teams of professional players.

Boxing and the noble art of self defence has developed into prize fighting, the prize being purses of money ranging into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Professionalism killed lacrosse, the Canadian national game and one of the finest of all field games. A quarter of a century ago every town and village in Eastern Canada had its lacrosse clubs, and thousands of boys and young men participated in its health-giving activities. Then the idea of commercializing the game was conceived, and its blighting effect is seen in the practical disappearance of the game.

Canada's winter game, hockey, is going the same way. Professionalism flourishes for a while, kills the amateur game, and in killing off amateur sport likewise kills the goose that lays the golden egg, because without active amateur sports the development of players comes to an end and the supply of players for professional ranks falls off.

It has been thought that professional baseball was so thoroughly well organized and so deeply entrenched in the United States that it could withstand almost anything. But a recent survey of baseball made for the National Amateur Athletic Federation has established beyond dispute that even baseball is "slipping." Major League matches have approached amateur agencies offering co-operation for reviving sport because they foresee a famine of players.

It is seen, therefore, that the advent of professionalism not only kills the sporting instincts of the people, turning them into namby-pamby "rooters" for a group of paid entertainers instead of active participants in the game themselves, but it is demoralizing to the games as such. So long as a city or town maintains a professional baseball or hockey team, the amateur game suffers, but with the professional teams out of the way, amateur teams multiply, the game itself flourishes, and the stamina, physique and health of the youth improves. The truth of this statement has been demonstrated over and over again in Western Canada.

Professionalism has a further demoralizing effect. The player is out to win, that and that alone. His salary depends upon it, and any trick or expedient that will get past the referee or umpire is resorted to whether it is "sporting" or not. They are not playing for the "game's sake," but for the box office receipts and a prospective sale to some other club at a higher salary.

A crowd of spectators goes wild and experiences spasms of joy over a win by the "home" team although the members of that team may have been collected from the four corners of the continent, and have no interest in or regard for the "home" town—except the salary they are getting out of it. And the same "home" crowd will groan and hiss if the visiting team achieve victory by superior play. Accompanying this so-called sport is a tendency to betting and gambling far surpassing any attendant on amateur games.

Elimination of professionalism and a general revival of interest and participation in amateur sports of all kinds is a much to be desired development in Canada and one calculated to build up a more virile, robust, self-reliant young Canadianism.

HOW ALL MOTHERS CAN KEEP HEALTH

Cares of Home and Children Often Causes a Breakdown

The demands upon a mother's health are many and severe. Her own health trials and her children's welfare exact heavy tolls, while hurried meals, broken rest and much indoor living tend to weaken her constitution. It is no wonder that the woman at home is often indisposed through weakness, headaches, backaches and nervousness. Too many women have grown up to accept these troubles as a part of the lot of motherhood. But many and varied as her health troubles are, the cause is simple and relief at hand. It is rich, red blood that keeps a woman well; when she is ill the blood is thin and watery, and she must take a tonic to enrich it to renew her health. The nursing mother more than any other woman in the world needs rich blood and plenty of it. There is one sure way to get this rich blood so necessary to health, and that is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mrs. Henry Burke, Lower L'Ardoise, N.S., tells what these pills did for her. She says: "I first used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills five years ago. After my baby was born I did not regain my usual health. I felt weak, miserable and always tired so I started taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking five boxes I felt like a new woman. Ever since that time when I feel tired and overworked I take this treatment and always with great benefit. I have proved them to be a splendid medicine for nursing mothers, and I always recommend them to others."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Mount Loughheed

High Mountain Peak to Commemorate Name of Late Senator

Mount Loughheed is to be a new name on the map of the Rocky Mountain country, commemorating the name of the late Senator Loughheed. The Geographic Board of Canada has advised its local representative that it has decided to name a hitherto nameless peak in the Banff district, lying northwest of Mount Borgeau between Healy Creek and the Bow River, and a near neighbor of Mount Brett and Massivier Mountain. It is about 2½ miles from the Canadian Pacific Railway and has a height of 8,850 feet.

Soviet's Figures About Wheat Crop Mythical

Brought About Slump in Wheat Markets of World

The London food council has opened an inquiry into the recent remarkable increases in the price of wheat which have been followed by advances in the cost of flour and bread in Great Britain, after they had steadily declined for two months.

This sharp reaction, which has hit severely both importers and the public, is undoubtedly due in large measure to the issue of false figures of an abundant Russian wheat yield by the Soviet Government. Its action helped to bring about a slump in the wheat markets of the world, and so deceived buyers that importers and bakers have been left with very scant stocks of wheat and flour.

Definite proof is now available that the Soviet's figures were mythical, and the Communist Government is now seeking to save its face from the discredit into which it has been brought by indicting Sokolnikoff, the finance commissar, for having framed a badly founded budget, and by declaring that the provincial grain export committees were responsible for the extraordinary exaggerations in their official reports and will be brought before the courts.

Endorse Hudson's Bay Road

Toronto Business Men Now Recognize Claim of Western Citizens

Word is received by C. C. Cook, secretary of the South Saskatchewan branch, On-to-the-Bay Association, that Colonel F. J. James, president, had interviewed prominent financiers in Toronto on the completion of the Hudson's Bay Railway. In his letter to Mr. Cook, Mr. James states that the eastern attitude has changed and now is entirely sympathetic toward western claims for completion. Mr. James declared that when in possession of full information regarding the Bay line, Toronto business men could see no objection whatever towards its completion, Major E. Percival-Brown, K.C., was mentioned by Mr. James in his letter as entirely in accordance with western views.

On his return from England, where he now goes, Mr. James will address a body of business men in Toronto on the feasibility of the Hudson's Bay road. The invitation to make an address was tendered by Toronto residents.

DECIDE AGAINST THE PURCHASE OF ELEVATORS

Calgary.—H. E. G. Schofield, Crossfield, was re-elected vice-president of the United Farmers of Alberta. There were no other nominations.

The delegates voted against acquisition of elevator facilities by the Alberta Wheat Pool at the present time. The question came before the convention in the form of a resolution asking the convention to demand that the wheat pool board take immediate action toward acquiring elevator facilities. Coupled in interest with the vote of the convention was a lengthy statement on the matter made by the president of the United Farmers of Alberta, H. Wood. He spoke, however, in his capacity as chairman of the board of directors of the Alberta Wheat Pool.

Mr. Wood was definite in his opposition to the acquisition of elevator facilities at the present time. "You are going to drive the pools out of business if you drive them into premature elevator development," he said.

He declared that it appeared to him as though there was a movement on foot to wreck the pool through an attempt to force it into acquiring elevator facilities. It would be possible, he said, to force the pool to spend 15 or 20 million dollars for elevators, then, while the pool was loaded up with debt, make a real fight against it while it was financially embarrassed. "It looks as though this movement might be getting some assistance by some farmers at the convention," he said.

The vote against the resolution followed his statement.

No Liberal-Labor Alliance

Lloyd George Denies Rumor in a Speech in Wales

London.—Rumors that he intended to launch a movement for a Liberal-Labor alliance were denied by David Lloyd George in a speech at Carnarvon, Wales. He said that it would be unwise for Liberals to negotiate an alliance with any party, but it should concentrate its energies to reaching the goal of securing a large Liberal representation in the next parliament.

When that was achieved it would be time to consider co-operation with men who were prepared to support its programme, whether it involved a coalition government or not.

Trade Prospects Very Bright

Canadian Trade Increase in Past Nine Months is $295,000,000

Ottawa.—Total Canadian trade for the nine months ending December, of the fiscal year, was $1,726,000,000, or $295,000,000 more than in the corresponding nine months of the previous fiscal year. Export trade again showed the greatest increase. Domestic exports totalled $1,030,000,000, an increase of approximately $202,000,000. Imports were $685,000,000, an increase of $93,000,000. Foreign merchandise exported was $9,349,000, practically the same as in the previous nine months' period.

Scottish Thrift

Citizens of Glasgow Show Saving Habit by Huge Bank Accounts

London.—Glasgow's continued thrift is again exhibited in the nineteenth report submitted at the annual meeting of the savings bank which is the largest and most flourishing of its kind in the country. The deposit accounts now amount to over £2,600,000 sterling. Despite trade depression, there has been an increase in deposits for the year of nearly half a million. There were nearly 46,000 new accounts opened during the year.

Ask Duty On Imported Eggs

Millner, B.C.—Millner and Langley Prairie district poultrymen are asking for a duty of 18 cents a dozen on all eggs imported into Canada. It is pointed out that under the recent Australian treaty eggs came into Canada free, while there is a tax of 18 cents a dozen on Canadian eggs entering Australia.

Asks Reduction Of Troops In Rhineland

Small Prospect of Favorable Reply to Germany's Request

Paris.—The question of the reduction of the number of troops in the Rhineland occupation will be discussed by Premier Briand with Sir Austen Chamberlain, the British foreign secretary, when Sir Austen passes through Paris, homeward bound from Rapallo, Italy.

There is little prospect of a favorable reply to Germany's request for a decrease in the number of allied troops of occupation in the Rhineland, it was said in official circles.

There are now about 60,000 French troops in the occupied territory including service of supplies, guards and line communications, it was stated, while British and Belgians have about 8,000 each. The French require many more men than their allies because they have far greater ground to cover.

The German demand will be referred to the council of ambassadors for consideration at its next meeting, the date for which has not been fixed.

Charge Control Of Britain's Food Prices

New Zealand Products Being Held Up Pending Orders

London.—The Manchester Guardian gives prominence to an article in that paper in which it is alleged that while the government food control is busy with the misdeeds of small shopkeepers the council gives no time to dealing with the machinations of the interests represented by certain organizations recently formed in New Zealand and Australia to control the prices of supplies of meat, butter and cheese, which have already been sent to this country.

Quantities of the primary products of New Zealand have been held up pending orders from the Dominion with regard to the prices to be charged. The Guardian alleges. "This hold-up is part of a scheme whereby the agents here of the New Zealand dairy produce control board are keeping food off the market until such time as the prices rise to a point suiting their liking," the article says, "and in the meantime the shipments are being kept down to the requisite quantities."

Profits On Liquor

Alberta Government Makes Net Profit of $1,517,185 on Operations

Edmonton, Alta.—Net profits of $1,517,185 were made by the Alberta Government on its operations under the Liquor Act in 1925, according to a statement issued by Premier Brownlee. The full amount realized through the business of the liquor control board was $1,666,970, covering the full calendar year.

The 1925 figures are slightly in advance of the proportionate figures for 1924 when the board operated for only eight months.

Will Buy More British Goods

This Year Will Be Best For Canada Since War

London.—"Canada this year will be able to buy more British goods than in any year since the war," stated C. W. Johnston, Canadian National Railways manager at Montreal.

Speaking of Canada's prosperity, Mr. Johnston said that perhaps the best proof of Canada's economic revival is found in the changed attitude to immigration. "The 'three pounds to Canada' scheme came at the psychological moment, as all classes are beginning to realize the necessity of new settlers," Mr. Johnston stated.

Must Not Break Sabbath

Quebec.—Mills and factories will no longer operate on Sunday in this province, or action will be taken by the attorney-general, according to instructions issued by Premier Taschereau to Louis Goyon, deputy minister of labor, to advise the owners or managers of firms affected that Sunday must be observed.

Turks Show No Mercy

Constantinople.—Seven Turks were hanged in the public square of Angora for having participated in recent reactionary movement. Twenty-one Turks have been executed during the past two weeks.

COMMITTEES MAY BE APPOINTED SOON AT OTTAWA

Ottawa.—Committees of the House of Commons, usually appointed only after the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne has been disposed of, may be struck early this year and the committee work of the house may be under way before the debate is finished. The probability of a long adjournment immediately after the division on the address makes this desirable in order that any business requiring early committee consideration may be disposed of.

One of the first committees to get under way probably will be that on privileges and elections. This committee will have to consider one or two phases of the report of the chief electoral officer, especially that dealing with the election in North Huron, Ont.

Steady Recovery In Industrial Employment

Dominion Bureau of Statistics Issues Report For 1925

Ottawa.—Steady recovery in industrial employment marked the year 1925, according to a report just issued by the Dominion bureau of statistics.

The working forces of the approximately 5,900 firms reporting averaged 761,131 varying between 690,538 on January 1, 1925, and 809,072 on October 1 last. The index number of the latter date was at its highest point for the year standing at 95.3. In 1924 the peak of employment was reached on July 1, when the index was 95.9.

From early in January, 1925, to the beginning of July last there was, it is said, a period of uninterrupted expansion, during which approximately 105,000 persons were added to the staffs of the firms reporting.

Arbitration Treaty Has Outlawed War

Pact Between Sweden and Denmark Has Been Signed

Stockholm.—War between Sweden and Denmark is definitely outlawed by an unlimited arbitration treaty between the two nations signed here. The pact provides for arbitration of all questions including even those of national honor and "vital interests." A similar treaty was concluded recently between Sweden and Norway and negotiations to the same end are understood to be in progress with Finland.

Canadian Producers Elect Officers

Grading of Eggs, Butter and Cheese Discussed at Convention

Ottawa.—A. W. Bayman, Ottawa, was elected president of the Canadian Produce Association at the closing session of the convention here. Other officers are: First vice-president, C. M. Henderson, Montreal; second vice-president, C. P. Rhodes, Edmonton.

A. P. McLean, Regina, was elected to the board of directors.

The convention recommended abolition of the present terminology in the grading of eggs, urging that the terms extras, seconds and mediums replace the old names of extras, firsts and seconds.

George H. Barr, Toronto, in an address, declared that grading of cheese and butter had done more than any other thing in improving these industries.

Grading of cream would come into effect early this season.

Reduced Rate Westward

Premier Oliver Says B.C. Entitled to a Reduction of 2 or 3 Cents Per Hundred

Victoria.—British Columbia is entitled to a reduction of two or three cents per hundred pounds on grain moving west from Edmonton and Calgary to the coast, under the judgment sustained by the railway board yesterday, Premier Oliver declared.

A rate of 21 cents a hundred is charged on grain moving from Edmonton and Calgary to the coast now, the premier explained. This movement, he said, should be given a rate of 19 cents almost, to put it on the same basis as the eastward movement.

Royal Family Issue From Semi-Retirement

Time of Full Mourning For Dowager Queen Is Over

London.—The court has just changed from full mourning to half mourning for Dowager Queen Alexandra. This permits the Royal family to issue from their semi-retirement and resume public functions. The Prince of Wales opened an extensive engagement list with a dinner given by the South African Luncheon Club. This will be the first public function he has attended since his recent tour of South Africa and South America.

Irak Senate Approves Treaty

Bagdad, Irak.—The Anglo-Irak Treaty extending the British mandate over this country to a maximum of 25 years was approved by the Irak Senate with but one dissenting vote. The treaty was signed recently.

THREATS ARE RECEIVED BY SASK. MEMBERS

Regina, Sask.—Anonymous letters threatening members of the Saskatchewan Legislature who dare oppose the bill amending the Saskatchewan Wheat Pool Act of Incorporation, have been received by Premier Charles A. Dunning. The premier, speaking on a question of privilege in the chamber, declared his confidence that the promoters of the bill knew nothing of the threats.

Supported by opposition groups in the house, Premier Dunning condemned the authors of the anonymous letters. He pointed out that intimidation of members was punishable by the legislature sitting as a court.

Debate on the proposed amending bill today brought out the question: "Will the amending bill prejudicially affect the rights of any individual in an action now before the courts?"

"Do the provisions of the bill by which the pool seeks the right to collect 25 cents a bushel as liquidated damages, also power to secure an injunction against members breaking the contract, raise the matters at issue in the Pool-Zurowski judgment?"

The questions were raised on points of order. Mr. Speaker Robinson reserved his decision.

Wembley Workers Rewarded

Honors List Issued For Those Who Made Exhibition a Success

London.—Representations which have been so persistent ever since the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley closed for recognition of those whose work made it a success, have prevailed earlier than the authorities originally intended. An honors list was issued which contains 35 decorations for those participating in the exhibition.

General Sir Travers Clarke, deputy chairman and chief administrative officer of the exhibition, is created Knight of the Grand Cross, the highest honor awarded.

Four were made knights and twelve Commanders of the British Empire. Eight were created officers of the order of the British Empire and ten members of the Order, of which Australia and New Zealand took the lion's share.

The only woman recipient was Lady Galway, chairman of the Women's Section.

Newfoundland was represented in the list by Major L. C. Outerbridge, of St. John's, who was made Commander of the Order of the British Empire.

Building Super-Bomber

New York Company Starts Construction of Huge Plane

New York.—The largest single engine bombing plane in the world is now in the course of construction for the government, it was disclosed by Thomas R. Huff, president of the Huff Daland Airplane Company.

The new super-bomber, known as the "Cyclops," will be equipped with a 25-cylinder motor, capable of developing 1,200 horsepower. The plane will have an approximate speed of 135 miles an hour, and will carry fuel sufficient for a 24-hour flight.

Chicago Gunman Captured

St. Louis, Mo.—Trailed three months by department of justice agents, one of whose number he had slain, Martin J. Durkin, 26, notorious Chicago criminal, was captured here. The much-sought slayer, described in police circulars as "very dangerous," "quick to draw," fell into a trap prepared by department agents, city detectives and railroad employees and was overpowered in the drawing room of a Frisco-Katy train upon arrival at Webster Groves, a suburb, from San Antonio.

Mexican Consul For Canada

Multi-Millionaire in 20 Years

Philadelphia.—Joseph Caplan, who migrated from London, Eng., as a boy 20 years ago, has purchased a building for a price said to be $11,000,000.

"Happiness Is in Poetry," Says Poet

"Lofty thought and great ideals, embodied in poetry of genius, serve as an introduction to another, more glorious life," said Dr. Bliss Carman, considered the foremost Canadian poet, in an interview recently. "Fine poetry and excellent literature bring you where happiness is to be found."

The distinguished poet has just completed a tour of Western Canada, travelling exclusively on Canadian Pacific Railway lines, where he was scheduled to deliver a series of seminars and lectures on the Relation of Poetry to Life. His first lecture was given at the University of Manitoba in Winnipeg on January 12. Later he spoke at Saskatoon, Edmonton and Vancouver, completing his trip on January 22.

A strikingly picturesque figure even in a plain, loose-fitting grey suit, Dr. Carman, creates a lasting impression of genius and kindness upon those with whom he comes in contact. Before making the western tour he delivered a series of lectures in Eastern Canada, at McGill University, the University of Toronto and Queen's University.

Call at the Ev. church any, or better every evening, 8 p.m. until further notice, and you will receive your message in due order. There are many messages similar to yours, so don't miss being there when yours will be delivered. It contains good news of ever increasing value to the recipient.

The "Father and Son" service last Sunday evening under the auspices of the Tuxis and Trail Ranger boys was much enjoyed by an audience of 253 in attendance. Many noteworthy comments are yet being heard of the fine logic and educational as well as spiritual and instructive value of the boys' speeches, all based on the same text, Luke 2:52, "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man." The speakers and their respective subjects drawn from this text were: Elmer Evans—"Intellectual;" Robert Rood—"Physical;" Russel Berscht—"Devotional;" and Arthur Reiber—"Social." After the introduction by the pastor, Rev. Roppel, Elwood Evans, very ably acted as boy's chairman. The orchestra of both stringed and brass instruments, under leadership of Mr. Boorman, was also a fine asset to the program.

Under auspices of the W.M.S. the annual day of prayer for Home and Foreign Missions will be observed next Sunday. The morning service will be adapted to this cause with special features of interest and a good self denial offering is also hoped for.

The social meeting of the Ladies' Aid and W.M.S. held last Friday evening at the parsonage was attended by over fifty, including both husbands and wives. The program of a varied and spicy nature was instructive as well as entertaining. After a very generous and delicious lunch furnished by the ladies, all returned home hoping for the next similar occasion not too far hence.

Every reader is invited to the Evangelistic services now on in the Ev. church every evening except Saturdays. Good singing, special music and a message for you.

CARD OF THANKS

Hockey.

Didsbury Defeats Innisfail 6-3.

The local hockey team excelled itself in the game on Tuesday night with Innisfail. The Didsbury boys outclassed their opponents almost throughout the evening, and showed their superiority again and again. For this state of affairs considerable credit goes to Doc. Leisemer, C. Reiber, Cecil Studer and G. Cook, who were a monument of strength to the local aggregation. The ice was in good shape and there was a good attendance, which must have been very encouraging to the team.

Didsbury's line-up was as follows—Clemens, goal. Nowak, Studer and Reiber, defence. Leisemer, Cook, Evans Robinson and Hardy, forwards.

Didsbury has now played four games, winning two of them. The next game will be with Bowden at Didsbury on Thursday, February 11th, when it is hoped the local team will be again well supported by the residents.

Here and There

Timber exported from British Columbia during the nine months ending September 30, 1925 was 36,663,000 feet, compared with 50,500,000 feet for 1924; 46,643,000 feet in 1923; and 49,820,000 feet in 1922.

A project is under way at Toronto for the construction of the largest hotel in Canada, which also means the largest hotel in the British Empire. It is understood that the new structure will be even larger than the Roosevelt in New York.

The apple crop in the Okanagan Valley, British Columbia, this year is estimated at 2,300,000 boxes. At a fair estimate of a dollar and a half a box, the return to growers in this district will be approximately four million dollars.

The Eastern International Dog Derby will be run at Quebec on February 18, 19 and 20. The course provides for a distance of 45 miles a day for three days, irrespective of rain, snow or storm. The winner will receive $1,000 and a gold cup. Other competitors will be awarded prizes aggregating $2,200.

Immigration to Canada for the six months from April 1 to September 30, 1925 totalled 57,086. Of this number 25,072 were from Great Britain and Ireland, 11,199 from the United States and 20,815 from other countries. In the same period 18,282 Canadians returned from the United States.

With Canadian ensign flying and all her gala bunting aloft, the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Scotland left the harbor of New York sharp at noon on December 3 on the first part of her journey in the course of which she will completely circumnavigate the globe, covering approximately 30,000 miles, visiting nineteen different countries and making twenty-four ports of call.

Canadian Pacific Railway gross earnings for the month of October were $19,569,188.43 an increase of $216,847.93 over the sum for the corresponding period of 1924. Net profits were $7,444,027.08 or an increase of $421,849.85 over $7,022,177.23 for October 1924. Net profits for the ten months ending October 31 were $29,079,949.01 an increase of $1,611,889.52 over the sum of $27,468,059.49 for the same period of 1924.

According to advices from a reliable source, conditions in the West have shown consistent improvement this year. The crop has been gathered, threshing is finished, and the grain has been stored in elevators. With the astoundingly rapid despatch of wheat, money is steadily coming in to farmers, giving them an opportunity to clear off debts and leaving them enough to extend their purchases.

The first Christmas holiday special over the Canadian Pacific Railway bearing three hundred happy Westerners bound for the Old Country arrived at St. John, N.B. in time to connect with the Canadian Pacific liner Montrose which will land them in Great Britain in time for the Christmas holidays. The special, travelling as the second section of the Imperial Limited, was composed of eight sleepers, one from Edmonton, Calgary, Moose Jaw, Kerrobert, Sask., Shaunavon, Sask., and two from Winnipeg.

Exceeding anything before shown in the Dominion of Canada and in the world, figures of marketing of all grains and of car loadings in the month of November furnish a double record for Canadian Pacific Railway western lines, for Canada and for the world. Marketing of all grains totalled 69,310,780 bushels and car loadings were 39,522 cars. For figures even distantly approaching the above, the statistician must go back to November 1923, when 57,608,000 bushels of all grains were marketed and 36,879 cars were loaded.

The Far East has heard about Canadian apples. The Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Asia carried 8,000 boxes of apples when clearing out of Vancouver last week. General trade conditions between Canada and the Far East are quite healthy as there was also on board the vessel 800 tons of Canadian flour, 100 automobiles and 160 tons of Alberta beef.

With each succeeding year Great Britain is relying more upon British colonies for agricultural supplies. In the seven months of 1925 ending July, Canada supplied Great Britain with 4,927,266 pounds of butter, compared with 154,224 pounds for the same period of 1924, and 40,458,544 pounds of cheese, compared to 20,153,504 pounds for the same period of last year.

ECLIPSE FASHIONS

Exclusive Patterns
by Shirley Rogers

Gifts That Bring Pleasure

Make them to wear—or to give away. Let your aprons be the bright badge of your happiness in your home! Look your prettiest when you're busy—this is a good watchword for every housewife. All you require is a yard of material, some lace, ribbon and ready-made colored binding. The pattern for View A is perforated for embroidery dots, and there is a clever arrangement of pockets. 3 3/4 yards of lace is required to finish the edge and 3 yards of ribbon will make the rosettes and strings. The apron in View B was made from the same pattern and odd bits of chintz used to make the bib and pockets. Colored binding makes a neat finish for the edge and ties. Unbleached cotton fashions the apron in View C with a wider width colored binding for the edges. It is larger than the two aprons previously described, which makes it of a more practical nature. The bib was omitted in View D and a yoke substituted. No 1274 is in one size only. Price 20 cents.

Our Fashion Book, illustrating the newest and most practical styles, will be of interest to every home dressmaker. Price of the book 10 cents the copy.

Prison Population

Government Report States Number of Inmates of Prisons Are Decreasing

The average daily population of Canada's penitentiaries is decreasing, judging from the report of the superintendent of federal jails for the last fiscal year. In that year there were 2,217 unwilling guests of the federal government on any average day. In the previous year there were 2,373 and in the year before that 2,582.

The cost per capita per diem was lower last year than in 1923, but higher than in 1924. The figures are: 1925, $1.48; 1924, $1.30; and in 1923, $1.53.

The general cost of administration of the several federal penitentiaries administered under the superintendent of penitentiaries for the Dominion was $1,683,192 for the last fiscal year. From this is deducted $168,328, revenue earned by the work of the prisoners.

Newspaper Passes 105th Anniversary

The Brockville Recorder newspaper has completed an uninterrupted publication of one hundred and five years without change of title. It was founded in 1821 by Chauncey Beach, an itinerant printer, as the first newspaper in upper Canada, east of Kingston and is today the sole survivor of all of its contemporaries at that period.

ON THE AIR

What is Doing in the World of Radio

Weighing less than 100 pounds, a small radio device by which one can maintain direction of 1,000 planes in battle has been perfected secretly in the United States.

The listener is considered the biggest factor in radio broadcasting today. Practically every broadcast station is sending out test programmes to determine the desires of the radio public.

Setting a record for Saskatchewan in two-way wireless conversation, L. H. Perres, 2034 Albert Street, Regina code artist, talked to A. S. Chung, of Honolulu, Hawaii, from 9.55 to 10.12 o'clock one evening recently.

A score of men, on top of the world, at remote points within the Arctic Circle, recently clustered around radio sets in police barracks or trading post huts to hear greetings from the postmaster-general of Canada and Hudson's Bay Company officials, and a musical programme broadcast from radio station KFKX at Hastings, Neb. The programme began at 9 o'clock and lasted after midnight. Results of the radio cast will not be known until the Arctic regions open up next summer.

Is radio developing a mysterious and uncanny "radio sense" in habitual receptionists?

It is well known that the deprivation of one of the senses serves to sharpen and make more acute those remaining. KFI officials at Los Angeles believe that the receptionist, who is essentially blind before a loud speaker, has instinctively developed an unbelievable perception gained through the ear alone.

KFI bases its theory on thousands of letters which graphically and almost accurately describe persons who take part regularly on the programme. These descriptions are given by persons who have never seen the performers.

Pastor Gave Away Millions

Every Dollar of Earnings Was Spent On Poor

Rev. Dr. Russell H. Conwell, of the Baptist Temple, New York, was a follower of Jesus in going about doing good. During his lifetime he earned $11,000,000 by his own efforts. Every dollar of it was spent in behalf of the poor, the needy, the outcast. By his liberality he won the title of the penniless millionaire. Eleven million dollars was given away by this means for the cause of charity and education. Rockefeller, Carnegie, Straus, Flick and a half dozen others have given millions for charity and education, but none gave as much in proportion as did this man. He gave millions and died with an estate of practically nothing. An estate of $14,000 was left to a son and daughter. He also left an imperishable name—Kingston British Whig.

Exhibition at Federal Capital May Get
Dominion Government Grant

As the result of an interview with Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture, in the Dominion Government, Ottawa will likely receive a grant from the Dominion Government towards extensions to the exhibition buildings at Lansdown Park, Mayor Balharrie stated. The fact that the world's poultry congress is coming to Ottawa in 1927, makes it necessary said the mayor, to erect new buildings to meet the requirements of this big congress.

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND MEN

Golden Text: Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life; he that cometh to Me shall not hunger, and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst. John 6:35.

Lesson: John 6:1-71.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 34:1-11.

Explanations and Comments

Jesus and the Multitude, verses 1-4. "After these things"—a vague note of time; see The Historical Background—Jesus crossed over to the eastern side of the Sea of Galilee, or Sea of Tiberias as it was also called, from the city of Tiberias which Herod Antipas had built on the lake in honor of the Emperor Tiberias. He climbed the hillside and sat down, hoping to have a quiet time of communion there with His disciples.

Many young people have been accused, not without justice, of having a "moving picture mind"—all life being to them a series of snapshots, with no chance for a time exposure. "They cannot think straight on any subject; they are a bundle of transient impressions and confused ideas," says Dr. W. H. P. Faunce. "Solitude is to the soul what space is to a growing tree—without it the tree or the soul is stunted and dwarfed."

A great multitude of people, attracted to Jesus by His power over disease, followed on foot around the northern end of the lake. They were Galileans on their way to the Passover at Jerusalem, the second one in Jesus' public ministry.

London Paper Comments on Proposed Imperial Conference

The Evening Standard says that if the proposed Imperial conference is held in October next it will be primarily political.

The political United States, however, is in no immediate danger. The Standard adds, but the economic organization (the Imperial economic committee) is practically non-existent.

Continuing, The Standard says: "The formulation of definite plans for the development of empire markets and the organization of Imperial trade cannot be done in six months but could be done by October, 1928."

Western Cattle Running Outside and

The department of agriculture and colonization of the Canadian National Railways reports that livestock in the west are in better condition, at this period, than for many years past. Almost entire absence of snow is enabling farmers to keep their cattle and horses running outside, with a consequent saving of feed. The reserve supply of feed is also having the effect of increasing the number of cattle being carried through the winter.

"BAREE, SON OF KAZAN," a Vitaphone Picture, With Wolf, the War Dog.
Is an Adaptation of This Story

SYNOPSIS

It was in the winter that a half-breed found in the snow footprints of Baree, the wolf-dog. He reported to McTaggart, the factor, that he had seen prints larger than those of a fox, and the factor's suspicions were aroused. Baree had been his enemy. He had tried to kill the dog and the dog had inflicted wounds on him. Moreover, McTaggart had shot Pierrot, the trapper, who was Baree's master, and caused the animal to be separated from Nepeese, the trapper's daughter.

The next day saw the beginning of the struggle that was to follow between the wits of man and beast. To Baree the encroachment of Bush McTaggart's trap-line was not war; it was existence. It was to furnish him food, as Pierrot's line had furnished him food for many weeks. But he sensed the fact that in this instance he was law-breaker and had an enemy to outwit. Had it been good hunting weather he might have gone on, for the unseen hand that was guiding his wanderings was drawing him slowly but surely back to the old beaver pond and the Gray Loon. At it was, with the snow deep and soft under him—so deep that in places he plunged into it over his ears—McTaggart's trap-line was like a trail of mamma made for his special use. He followed in the factor's snowshoe tracks, and in the third trap killed a rabbit. When he had finished with it nothing but the hair and crimson patches of blood lay upon the snow. Starved for many days, he was filled with a wolfish hunger, and before the day was over he robbed the bait from a full dozen of McTaggart's traps. Three times he struck poison-baits—venison or caribou fat in the heart of which was a dose of strychnine—and each time his keen nostrils detected the danger. Pierrot had more than once noted the amazing fact that Baree could sense the presence of poison even when it was most skillfully injected into the frozen carcass of a deer. Foxes and wolves ate of flesh from which his supersensitive power of detecting the presence of deadly danger turned him away. So he passed Bush McTaggart's poisoned tidbits, sniffing them on the way, and leaving the story of his suspicion in the manner of his footprints in the snow. Where McTaggart had halted at midday to cook his dinner Baree made these same cautious circles with his feet.

"The Black Wolf!"

The second day, being less hungry and more keenly alive to the hated smell of his enemy, Baree ate less but was more destructive. McTaggart was not as skillful as Pierre Eustach in keeping the scent of his hands from the traps and "houses," and every now and then the smell of him was strong in Baree's nose. This wrought in Baree a swift and definite antagonism, a steadily increasing hatred where a few days before hatred was almost forgotten. There is, perhaps, in the animal mind a process of simple computation which does not quite achieve the distinction of reason, and which is not altogether instinct, but which produces results that might be ascribed to either. Baree did not add two and two together to make four; he did not go back step by step to prove to himself that the man to whom this trap-line belonged was the cause of all his griefs and troubles—but he did find himself possessed of a deep and yearning hatred. McTaggart was the one creature except the wolves that he had ever hated; it was McTaggart who had hurt him. McTaggart who had hurt Pierrot, McTaggart who had made him lose his beloved Nepeese—and McTaggart was here on this trap-line! If he had been wandering before, without object or destiny, he was given a mission now. It was to keep to the traps. To feed himself. And to vent his hatred and his vengeance as he lived.

The second day, in the centre of a lake, he came upon the body of a wolf that had died of one of the poison-baits. For a half-hour he mauled the dead beast until its skin was torn in ribbons. He did not taste the flesh. It was repugnant to him. It was his vengeance on the wolf breed. He stopped when he was half a dozen miles from Lac Bain, and turned back. At this particular point the line crossed a frozen stream beyond which was open plain, and over that plain came when the wind was right—the smoke and smell of the Post. The second night Baree lay with a full stomach in a thicket of banksian pine; the third day he was travelling westward over the trap-line again.

Early on this morning Bush McTaggart started out to gather his catch, and where he crossed the stream six miles from Lac Bain he first saw Baree's tracks. He stopped to examine them with sudden and unusual interest, falling at last on his knees, whipping off the glove from his right hand, and picking up a single hair.

"The black wolf!" He uttered the words in an odd, hard voice, and involuntarily his eyes turned straight in the direction of the Gray Loon. After that, even more carefully than before, he examined one of the clearly impressed tracks in the snow. When he rose to his feet there was in his face the look of one who had made an unpleasant discovery.

"A black wolf!" he repeated, and shrugged his shoulders. "Bah! Lerue is a fool. It is a dog." And then, after a moment, he uttered in a voice scarcely louder than a whisper, "her dog."

He went on travelling in the trail of the dog. A new excitement possessed him that was more thrilling than the excitement of the hunt. Being human, it was his privilege to add two and two together, and out of two and two he made—Baree. There was little doubt in his mind. The thought had flashed on him first when Lerue had mentioned the black wolf. He was convinced after his examination of the tracks. They were the tracks of a dog, and the dog was black. Then he came to the first trap that had been robbed of its bait.

Under his breath he cursed. The bait was gone, and the trap was un sprung. The sharpened stick that had transfixed the bait was pulled out clean.

All that day Bush McTaggart followed a trail where Baree had left traces of his presence. Trap after trap he found robbed. On the lake he came upon the mauled wolf. From the first disturbing excitement of his discovery of Baree's presence his humor changed slowly to one of rage, and his rage increased as the day dragged out. He was not unacquainted with four-footed robbers of the trap-line, but usually a wolf or a fox or a dog who had grown adept in thievery troubled only a few traps. But in this case Baree was travelling straight from trap to trap, and his footprints in the snow showed that he stopped at each.

At dusk he reached the shack Pierre Eustach had built midway of his line, and took inventory of his fur. It was not more than a third of a catch; the lynx was half ruined, a mink was torn completely in two. The second day he found still greater ruin, still more barren traps. He was like a madman. When he arrived at the second cabin, late in the afternoon, Baree's tracks were not an hour old in the snow. Three times during the night he heard the dog howling.

The third day McTaggart did not return to Lac Bain, but began a cautious hunt for Baree. An inch or two of fresh snow had fallen, and as if to take even greater measure of vengeance from his man-enemy, Baree had left footprints freely within a radius of a hundred yards of the cabin. It was half an hour before McTaggart could pick out the straight trail, and he followed this for two hours into a thick banksian swamp. Baree kept with the wind. Now and then he caught the scent of his pursuer; a dozen times he waited until the other was so close he could hear the snap of brush, or the metallic click of twigs against his rifle barrel. And then, with a sudden inspiration that brought the curses afresh to McTaggart's lips, he swung in a wide circle and cut straight back for the trap-line. When the factor reached the line, along toward noon, Baree had already begun his work. He had killed and eaten a rabbit; he had robbed three traps in the distance of a mile, and he was headed again straight over the trap-line for Post Lac Bain.

Discover Strange Race

Survival of a Lost Tribe in the Wilds of South Africa

A scientific expedition, led by three Denver scientists, has returned to Cape Town from the remote desert regions to the north with a strange tale of the survival of a lost tribe of "strandloppers," the primitive cave-dwellers who formerly inhabited the coastal belt of the Cape and were believed to have become extinct.

The leaders of the expedition are Dr. C. E. Cadie, Dr. Grant H. John and Paul L. Hoefler.

The explorers have been filming bush life in the remote parts of the Kalahari Desert in the Bechuanaland Protectorate, and the Kaoko Veldt, the northern coastal region of the former German Southwest Africa. These are the regions chiefly inhabited by the bushmen, among the most backward of the human races.

The scientists report that the "strandloppers," the name given the cave dwellers by the Boers when they first came to this region many decades ago, were discovered inhabiting an almost inaccessible stretch of coast which is isolated by a hundred-mile width of desert. The government of the South African Union is being urged to send a special expedition to investigate this territory and its inhabitants.

Prediction Came True

Citizen of Bombay Foretold His Own Death On Nov. 18

An extraordinary story of predicting one's own death comes from Sholapur in Bombay Presidency.

Moti Swamy, literally the Pearl of Ascetics, aged 80, had predicted, it is stated, six months ago, that he would pass away on November 18 last. Two days before that he reminded his followers that the time of his death had arrived, and at their request a photograph was taken.

On the day of his death he walked round the city and camp of Sholapur and collected money for his burial, deposited it with a municipal councillor, went thence and, having seated himself in the yoga posture, passed away.

He—"Can you tell me how to get into the museum?"

She—"Well, you might let your hair grow long and wiggle your ears."
